

- JUAN PÉREZ, On the theory of pairs of differentially closed fields.

Université de Mons.

E-mail: jm.perezo@uniandes.edu.co.

We make use of Delon's setting in [1], to prove the quantifier elimination of the theory of proper pairs of differentially closed fields of characteristic zero, where the big field is differentially transcendental over the small one. As a consequence, we obtain the completeness of the theory, and model completeness in a reduct of Delon's language. Additionally, we study pairs of closed ordered differential fields under the same hypothesis.

[1] F. DELON, Élimination des quantificateurs dans les paires des corps algébriquement clos, Confluentes Mathematici, vol.4 (2012), no.2, pp.1–11.